

Waverley Baseball Club: Napier Park, High Street Rd, Glen Waverley VIC 3150 (03) 98861199

Dear Supports,

WELCOME to Club 3150, a new club for baseball enthusiasts who do or did call Waverley Baseball Club home. Club 3150 aims to regenerate those great times with old, familiar faces who may disappeared from view as well as providing new memories, friends and the ability to network with like-minded individuals.

Club legend and current coach David Clarkson is the inaugural president of Club 3150

Club 3150 aims to generate new revenue stream as well as undertake special projects for the Waverley Baseball Club so it can remain as the most successful, foremost baseball club in the country.

Club 3150 is endorsed and supported by the Waverley Baseball Club.

Club 3150 plans to hold two lunches this baseball season at Napier Park in the club's magnificent club rooms as well as meetings during the off-season. Coming seasons will see this expand to an additional function during the season.

Club 3150 will hold its first lunch on Sunday, December 8 when the club plays Preston. Lunch will commence at 1pm with meal and drinks included to 3pm.

Club 3150 will incorporate some of the club's great past and present players to talk at each of our lunches.

Clubs 3150 offers a number of tiered memberships:

Annual member subscription of the following:-

- Individual members - $200
- Husband & wife/partner $350
- Senior $125.

Club 3150 tiered membership is also available, please contact Adrian Dunn (0438 98 33 88) for further details
